WORSHIP SERIES: CHARACTERS IN CONFLICT

The Season of Lent is all about conflict; we fix our eyes on Jesus as he bravely tackles human problems like temptation, skepticism, confusion, isolation, disappointment, and death. This year we'll look closely at some Bible characters Jesus meets as he fights these battles in our place.

- Mar 21-22: Jesus and the Blind Man
- Mar 28-29: Jesus and the Dead Man
- Apr 4-5 (Palm Sunday): Jerusalem and the King

ST. PETER SCHOOL

As of right now, the school year is on hold indefinitely as our country deals with the COVID-19 outbreak. School staff worked over the weekend and into the beginning of the week meeting, planning, developing, and putting together educational packets for each student in grades 3K-8. Parents came to school and picked up these packets on Tuesday. The goal is to have students focus on review material during this first phase of off-campus learning. By the time you read this, teachers will have already made contact with parents to offer support and take questions. The staff will continue to meet regularly over the next few weeks to develop and implement the next phase of off-campus instruction.

NO WOMEN'S EVENING BIBLE STUDY

Due to COVID-19 complications, the Women's Evening Bible study is canceled until further notice. Please do your own study of Christ and the Women of the Resurrection, as we all need this up-beat, encouraging "cup of joy" always, but especially at "such a time as this". Happy Resurrection Day!

WOMEN'S MINISTRY SPRING BRUNCH

Due to the restrictions being advised regarding the COVID-19 virus, the Women's Spring Brunch that was scheduled for April 4th has been cancelled.

The Radio Broadcast for March 22, 2020 is sponsored by Pat Leupold in memory of her husband, Laverne Leupold.
