“Moreover, when God gives any man wealth and possessions, and enables him to enjoy them, to accept his lot and be happy in his work – this is a gift of God” (Eccl. 5:19).

FIC also provides an in-depth look at important biblical truths while striving to inspire its readers to live lives of Christian service. As WELS' official magazine, FIC shares news from its congregations, schools, ministry affiliates, and synodical areas of ministry. Please take home a copy of the November edition that is available on the back table in church!

NEW BIBLE CLASS

“Living Christian Values in the Home” is a five week Bible study that will address how to teach children contentment, compassion, honesty, and responsibility. The very first lesson will emphasize that it starts with each of us individually embracing the mission God gave to us. Whether you are a parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, or family friend, this class will help pave the way for you making a difference in the lives of the children you come into contact with on a regular basis. Classes will be held Sunday mornings starting at 9:15 am in the school commons on November 15, 22, 29 and December 6, 13.

CHURCH ENTRY

The Narthex is now available for entry and exit into church. NOTE – it is for entry/exit ONLY. There will be no seating permitted in the Narthex or library, and no indoor socializing before or after service.
